

General Introduction to Sangharakshita's Seminars

Hidden Treasure

From the mid-seventies through to the mid-eighties, Urgyen Sangharakshita led many seminars on a wide range of texts for invited groups of Order members and Mitrās. These seminars were highly formative for the FWBO/Triratna as Sangharakshita opened up for the still very young community what it might mean to live a life in the Dharma.

The seminars were all recorded and later transcribed. Some of these transcriptions have been carefully checked and edited and are now available in book form. However, a great deal of material has so far remained unchecked and unedited and we want to make it available to people who wish to deepen their understanding of Sangharakshita's presentation of the Dharma.

How should one approach reading a seminar transcription from so long ago? Maybe the first thing to do is to vividly imagine the context. What year is it? Who is present? We then step into a world in which Sangharakshita is directly communicating the Dharma. Sometimes he is explaining a text, at other times he is responding to questions and we can see how the emergence of Dharma teachings in this context was a collaborative process, the teaching being drawn out by the questions people asked. Sometimes those questions were less to do with the text and arose more from the contemporary situation of the emerging new Buddhist movement.

Reading through the transcripts can be a bit like working as a miner, sifting through silt and rubble to find the real jewels. Sometimes the discussion is just a bit dull. Sometimes we see Sangharakshita trying to engage with the confusion of ideas many of us brought to Buddhism, confusion which can be reflected in the texts themselves. With brilliant flashes of clarity and understanding, we see him giving teachings in response that have since become an integral part of the Triratna Dharma landscape.

Not all Sangharakshita's ways of seeing things are palatable to modern tastes and outlook. At times some of the views captured in these transcripts express attitudes and ideas Triratna has acknowledged as unhelpful and which form no part of our teaching today. In encountering all of the ideas contained in over seventeen million words of Dharma investigation and exchange, we are each challenged to test what is said in the fire of our own practice and experience; and to talk over 'knotty points' with friends and teachers to better clarify our own understanding and, where we wish to, to decide to disagree.

We hope that over the next years more seminars will be checked and edited for a wider readership. In the meantime we hope that what you find here will inspire, stimulate, encourage - and challenge you in your practice of the Dharma and in understanding more deeply the approach of Urgyen Sangharakshita.

Sangharakshita's Literary Executors and the Adhithana Dharma Team

SANGHARAKSHITA IN SEMINAR

From: The Hundred Thousand Songs of Milarepa

Chapter 52: Rechungpa's Journey to Weu

CONTENTS

- 1-4The first verse. Dreams of gurus and dakinis
- 3Dreams having their own reality
- 4Insight not being limited to a particular state of consciousness
- 5Rechungpa's lack of integration in his earlier days
- 6Not to be fooled by externals - coming from India/Tibet, wearing robes etc.
- 8Who is the superior teacher?
- 9Why there is only one Buddha at a time in a world system
- 10What is a 'Buddha'?
- 11-14'Degrees' of enlightenment - Arahants, Bodhisattvas
- 14The three kayas (Trikaya) - Nirmanakaya, Sambhogakaya, Dharmakaya
- 15Birds sleeping on the wing or soldiers sleeping while marching
- 16Milarepa's song
- 17-18'Holidays' from the spiritual life!
- 18Continuing the waking experience into the sleep state - exercises to help this
- 19Mundane dreams and archetypal dreams
- 20Practising when eating, sleeping, walking, working
- 21Circumambulating The Buddha or a stupa etc.
Clockwise and anti-clockwise - Widdershins and Productiona
- 22Sanctifying all daily activities with mantras
- 22-23The process of blessing a thangka or image or food
- 24Transmitting energy from person to person
- 27Rationalisations for eating meat based on misunderstandings of the Vajrayana
- 28Giving up and making use of alcohol
- 29Using alcohol to loosen people up!
- Rechungpa gives many reasons for going to Weu
- 30-31Milarepa replies in song
- 31The Four Blisses in the Tantra
- 34Milarepa sings another song encouraging Rechungpa not to go to Weu

- 36 Staying away from worldly influences
- 37 The micchaditthi that every experience is good for one's spiritual development
- 38 Not facing up to (or admitting) failure
- 39-40 A right livelihood project must succeed in three ways
- 41 Strengthening one's spiritual experience by travelling?
- 42 Vipassana experiences cannot be lost
- 44 Western European culture can be very cramping/restricting
- 45 If a Buddha image is NOT inspiring accept that it is not inspiring!
- 46 Working in a co-op requires quite a high degree of commitment
- 47 Scrutinising requests for holidays, records etc.
- 49 If one reads or listens to music read or listen to only the best
What do people find inspiring?
- 50 Bhante's feelings about Wagner and Beethoven
How music has become more subjective over the centuries
Goethe said there are two types of music - the music of worship and aspiration, and the music of dance
- 51 Handel
Mahayana Sutras going completely beyond even the best of culture.
- 52 Milarepa's song imploring Rechungpa not to go to Weu
- 53 Begging alms for 'mere enjoyment'
"You can't be a member of a co-op unless you are spiritually committed."
- 54 Sublime philosophy and primordial truth
- 55 Engaging in 'blind and foolish acts'
- 55 Not giving 'good advice' too readily
- 57 Performing magical ceremonies
Being 'beguiled by partial knowledge'
- 58 Not having a right to be supported by the laity
Divination
- 59 The story of the fox who lost his tail - giving advice
- 60 Spiritual attainment is important, not ecclesiastical position
- 62 A 'reasonable dependence' on positive conditions
Can one's spiritual experience be increased by 'wandering'?
- 63 'There is no such thing as a spiritual community as a sort of objective reality'
- 64 Not to commit oneself to a particular situation for five years, or even two.
- 66 Milarepa gives in to Rechungpa's request
- 67 Medicine for the journey and a trident
- 68 Sarvastivadin bhikshus carrying the trident (Kakara)

The Hindu trident (Trisol)
69Not putting scriptures under your arm but on the shoulder
70Rechungpa's song
The View, The Practice and The Action in Tibetan Buddhism
71The View of Sunyata and Rupa
Nihilism and Realism
The Buddhist and Hindu views of the Atman
72Who is reborn?
73What is Sunyata 'empty' of? - Concepts.
One is primarily concerned with experience
74The FWBO "View" being that of the Madhyamika
The primacy of experience over thoughts
Dzog-chen
74Bodhidharma and the founding of Zen
Hui Neng's tearing up of the Diamond Sutra
75Mr Chen's definition of the difference between the Madhyamika and the Yogachara schools
The Madhyamika view is the ultimate view because it is a non-view
76The Atthaka-Vagga Sutta of the Sutta Nipata
Bliss-Illumination
77Bringing samsaric energies into line with the spiritual
Non-duality
78The two great hindrances to meditation - drowsiness and scatteredness/distractedness
From View onto Action
79The experience of pleasure is ethically neutral
Experience the pleasure but with no craving
80The divine path, the heroic path and the diabolical path in Hindu tradition
Craving - a desire to prolong pleasure indefinitely
81The provisional character of asceticism in the Vajrayana
82Samaya - the pledge
The Mahamudra approach
84Why some tantric yogins seem unconventional
'Siddhi', 'Siddha',
'Sahaja' - 'what is natural to you' - Immanence
Quickly moving through Rechungpa's song
85Rechungpa's next song
88The perilous passage of obsession

Frivolity

89Samaya

90Hope and fear

91Rechungpa says that he will return

92Drowsiness and conflict

92Ways of meditating if one is drowsy or distracted

93The moment of non-discursive awareness when you wake up

94-95Milarepa's song of farewell

95'Transmitting' the Enlightenment experience

97The four (five) main schools of Tibetan Buddhism

The 'Patron' Buddha The Archetypal Buddhas

98Vajravahni

Who/what are the Dharmapalas?

99Hiri and Ottapa - shame and conscience

101Guru, Deva and Dakini - the three 'esoteric' refuges

102Where did Dakinis come from?

102-105Responding to figures from Western mythology to stir up Dharmapala type energies within us

Wild and turbulent sources of inspiration in western history

105The Principle, Path and Accomplishment

106Positive projection

Bliss, illumination and non-thought - three characteristics of the Mahamudra/Enlightenment experience

107Bringing indigenous deities into Hinduism and Buddhism

Nature spirits and paganism

108Judaism's animosity towards other gods as theirs was the 'only' god - "Theological Totalitarianism".

109The disciple has to exceed the guru

Advertisements claiming teachers are enlightened!

111Rechungpa departs and Milarepa manifests as seven repas before him and asks questions of Rechungpa

112Rechungpa prostrates and replies

114Why continue meditating after enlightenment?

114What happens when an enlightened being meditates?

115The Buddha's withdrawing from bodily pain through dhyana states

116Radiating a positive influence when in the fourth dhyana

117Enlightenment and bliss - levels of mundane and transcendental bliss

118The patrons come to Milarepa looking for Rechungpa

119No inhibiting of ordinary human emotion in Tibetan Buddhism

What does one miss when somebody who is close to one goes away?

120	Allowing enlightened being to have emotions
121	Milarepa sings to the patrons saying Rechungpa has left and the patrons 'grovel' before Milarepa
124-126	Why 'prajna' is female
	'Self-arising' wisdom
127	Prana-Mind - breath
128	The symbolism of the Windhorse
	The symbolism of the lotus and flames surrounding the Three Jewels
	The Windhorse representing the Six Paramitas/Perfections
129	Dumo - Inner Heat
130	The word 'samadhi' and its two uses
131-132	Milarepa's long song to the patrons
133	"Word-conditioned" views
	Views turning into dogma
134	Non-duality
135	Using language in Buddhism poetically rather than scientifically
136	Insight, insight through reflection
136	Flashes of insight
138	The relation between samatha and vipassana
139	"Dry" Insight
	Giving talks as a way of clarifying one's ideas
140	Visualisation meditation - samatha and vipassana
141	Following the letter of the precepts rather than the spirit
142	Not letting Dharma practice just become a routine
143	The twofold sila - natural and artificial
	Skilful means - upayakaushalya
145	Pith Instructions
146	The need for direct, personal, instruction - not just books
	The gravitational pull never takes a holiday
148	Milarepa never being willing to compromise
	The dangers of being financially dependent upon the laity
149	Ostentatious faith and veneration - Trying to impress by going through the motions of spiritual practice
150-152	The Three Determinations
	The 'town' coming into the 'temple'
152	"You can't be a nominal Buddhist ... in the FWBO"
153	Culture can be religion's greatest friend and its greatest enemy
155	Young women visiting monasteries looking for husbands

156	Genuine lay Buddhists are very rare
157	Monks not working but being supported by the lay community
157-158	Born Buddhists?
160	Is sex the most important thing for many people? - The X-Factor
161	Getting used to Buddhism but not practising it
161	Tantric trinkets and paraphernalia
162	Being dependent on lay people and its undesirability
164	Coming into contact with non-Buddhists to try to get them onto the path of individual development, rather than relying upon them as donors
165	The Song of Fourfold Warning
	Doing meritorious deeds for the sake of fame
	Giving in order to get
167	Sacramental feasts becoming just parties
	The growth of the Vajrayana
169	Tantric initiations being given out indiscriminately in the West to people who have not Gone for Refuge
170	Love of preaching without the backing of scripture
171	Automatic prostrating before bhikkhus - not in the FWBO!
	Showing respect to an individual , not to a robe
172	The difficulty of getting to know another human being
	Behaving like a Dharma practitioner just to gather money
173	Preferring diversions to solitude
174	Talking for long periods without saying anything!
175	Tibetan lamas with wives and families
	Lamas and their dakinis/consorts
176	Milarepa sings again
177	Hungry ghosts
178	Projections and paranoia
	The difficulties of being a god or a preta
179	Good looking monks attracting the laity (to the Dharma!)
180	Keeping the Dharma predominant in various relationships
182-184	Milarepa's song wishing prosperity and boon
185	The Four Continents of the Buddhist World System
	Developing mettā towards rocks and stones?
	Rapidly working through the song
187	Buddhist cosmology and Mount Meru
188	The distinction between knowledge and being/experience
	Wanting to know all of the theory before you begin to practice!

190The need for some Dharma study to combat micchaditthis (wrong views)

General emphases from this chapter of the Songs of Milarepa

191Bhante's thoughts about the transcribing, editing and distribution of his seminars!!

192Mitrata and FWBO Publications

193Making cassettes of these seminars available

194Mandalas and personal mandalas

195The transcendental - being outside space and time

The limitations of language

196Einstein and space

Back to editing and language

198The written word, tape recordings and video tape

Giving lectures with video tape in mind

199'Luxury' goods - the colour television set?

203The final section of the Chapter

The Stream Entrant - breaking the intellectual fetters

204Having to be careful even after Stream Entry

Being reborn in the hell, preta, animal, god and asura realms

205What exhausts karma?

206What would happen if everybody was a Buddhist?!

207Preparation for giving good Dharma talks

Rechungpa and Gampopa

Living in a metaphorical cave whilst living in the city